

CALIFORNIA PRIVACY POLICY

This California Privacy Policy supplements the information contained in Envision’s Privacy Policy and applies solely to consumers who reside in the State of California. Envision adopts this notice to comply with the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018 (“CCPA”) and other California privacy laws. Any terms defined in the CCPA have the same meaning when used in this Notice.

INFORMATION WE COLLECT

In the course of its business, Envision collects certain “Personal Information,” as that phrase is defined by the CCPA. Within the last twelve (12) months, Envision collected the following categories of Personal Information from consumers who reside in the State of California¹:

Category	Examples of Information that May Be Collected by Envision
A. Identifiers	A real name, alias, postal address, unique Personal Information identifier, online identifier, Internet Protocol address, email address, account name, or Social Security number.
B. Personal information categories listed in the California Customer	A name, signature, Social Security number, physical characteristics or description, address, telephone number, education, employment, employment history, bank account number, credit card number,

Records statute (Cal. Civ. Code § 1798.80(e))	debit card number, or any other financial information, medical information, or health insurance information.
C. Commercial information	Records of Personal Information property, products or services purchased, obtained, or considered, or other purchasing or consuming histories or tendencies.
D. Professional or employment-related information.	Current or past employment or professional experience or performance.
E. Internet or other similar network activity	Browsing history, search history, information on a consumer's interaction with a website, application, or advertisement.
F. Geolocation data	Physical location or movements.

¹Some types of Personal Information fit into multiple categories and are, therefore, listed multiple times. Envision will not collect additional categories of Personal Information without providing you notice.

Envision obtains the categories of Personal Information listed above from the following sources:

- Categories A, B, C, and D:
 - Directly from the consumer. For example, from submissions through our website portal or forms, or website usage details collected automatically.
 - From third-parties that interact with us in connection with the services we perform.
- Categories E and F:
 - From activity on our website (www.envisionoutdoorliving.com). For example, from submissions through our website portal or website usage details collected automatically.

USE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Envision may use the Personal Information described in Categories A, B, C, and D for one or more of the following business or commercial purposes:

- To fulfill or satisfy the reason the consumer provided the information. For example, if a consumer shares his/her name and contact information to ask a question about our products or services, Envision will use that Personal Information to respond to the inquiry. Similarly, if the consumer provides Personal Information to make a warranty claim, Envision will use that information to administer the claim.
- To provide the consumer with requested information, products, or services.
- To provide, support, and/or develop Envision's Website, products, or services.
- To create, maintain, and/or secure a consumer's account with Envision.
- To process a consumer's requests, transactions, and/or payments and prevent transactional fraud.
- To carry out Envision's obligations and/or enforce its rights arising from any contracts entered into between a consumer and Envision, including for billing and collections.
- For testing, research, analysis, and/or product development.
- To respond to law enforcement requests or as otherwise required by applicable law, court order, or governmental regulations.
- As described to the consumer when collecting the Personal Information.
- Auditing related to a current interaction with the consumer and concurrent transactions.
- Detecting security incidents, protecting against malicious, deceptive, fraudulent, or illegal activity, and prosecuting those responsible for that activity.
- Performing services on behalf of the business, including maintaining or servicing accounts, providing customer service, processing or fulfilling orders and transactions, verifying customer information, processing payments, providing financing, providing advertising or marketing services, providing analytic services, or providing similar services.

- Undertaking activities to verify, improve, upgrade, enhance, or maintain the quality or safety of Envision’s products or services.
- Attracting consumers to buy, rent, lease, join, subscribe to, provide, or exchange products, goods, property, information, or services, or enabling or effecting, directly or indirectly, a commercial transaction.

Envision may use the Personal Information described in Categories E and F for one or more of the following business or commercial purposes:

- To provide, support, and/or develop Envision’s Website, products, or services.
- To create, maintain, and/or secure a consumer’s account with Envision.
- To process a consumer’s requests, transactions, and/or payments and prevent transactional fraud.
- For testing, research, analysis, and/or product development.
- To respond to law enforcement requests or as otherwise required by applicable law, court order, or governmental regulations.
- As described to the consumer when collecting the Personal Information.
- Auditing related to a current interaction with the consumer and concurrent transactions.
- Detecting security incidents, protecting against malicious, deceptive, fraudulent, or illegal activity, and prosecuting those responsible for that activity.
- Performing services on behalf of the business, including providing advertising or marketing services, providing analytic services, or providing similar services.
- Undertaking activities to verify, improve, upgrade, enhance, or maintain the quality or safety of Envision’s products or services.
- Attracting consumers to buy, rent, lease, join, subscribe to, provide, or exchange products, goods, property, information, or services, or enabling or effecting, directly or indirectly, a commercial transaction.

Envision will not collect additional categories of Personal Information or use the Personal Information we collected for materially different, unrelated, or incompatible purposes without providing you notice.

Disclosing Personal Information

Envision does not, and will not, sell Personal Information (including the Personal Information of minors under the age of 16). Envision may disclose (and, over the preceding 12-months, has disclosed) the Personal Information described in Categories A, B, C, and D for a business or commercial purpose to the following categories of third parties:

- Government agencies and courts, required by applicable law, court order, or governmental regulations.
- Vendors providing services to Envision.
